

African American History

Political Systems

- ___ Evaluate historic events and processes that changed political ideas and systems. AAH-01
- ___ Interpret how geographic, economic, technological, and social forces have affected the politics of the United States. AAH-02
- ___ Analyze political interactions between the United States and other countries within a global context. AAH-03

Economic

- ___ Analyze trading systems, their development into regional systems, the impact of inter-regional cultural contacts and eventual globalization. AAH-04
- ___ Examine the relationships between historical events and the economy of the United States. AAH-05

History

- ___ Evaluate the causes of political, economic, environmental, and social changes. AAH-06
- ___ Apply methods of historical inquiry (pose questions, collect and analyze primary and secondary sources, make and support arguments with evidence, and report findings). AAH-07
- ___ Analyze historic events within their context and evaluate how interpretations of those events have changed over time. AAH-08

Geography

- ___ Explain the interaction between people and their environments. AAH-09
- ___ Interpret various geographic representations (e.g., maps, charts, graphs). AAH-10

Social Systems

- ___ Evaluate the impacts of contacts among cultures. AAH-11
- ___ Compare and contrast ways in which social systems are affected by political, economic, environmental, demographic, and technological changes. AAH-12
- ___ Examine the evolution of the American identity through the eyes of different cultural groups. AAH-13