

Contemporary American HistoryPolitical Systems

_____ Interpret how geographic, economic, technological, and social forces have affected the politics of the United States. CAH-01

_____ Analyze political interactions between the United States and other countries within a global context. CAH-02

Economics

_____ Evaluate immediate and long term effects of economic events in historical contexts (e.g., Great Depression, WW II, late 1970s). CAH-03

History

_____ Apply methods of historical inquiry (pose questions, collect and analyze primary and secondary sources, make and support arguments with evidence, and report findings). CAH-04

_____ Examine the social, political, economic, and diplomatic aspects of 20th and 21st century events. CAH-05

_____ Compare and contrast current major world events to the events of the past century. CAH-06

Geography

_____ Interpret various geographic representations (e.g., maps, charts, graphs), including those that show the relationships between the United States and the world. CAH-07

_____ Examine trends in population movements within the United States. CAH-08

Social Systems

_____ Analyze influences causing changes in the attitudes, morals, and lifestyles of Americans. CAH-09

_____ Describe sources of social tension and major reform movements of the 20th and 21st centuries. CAH-10